HOLLYWOOD BABYLON

KENNETH ANGER'S "box of poison bonbons" sic - J.D. & don't talk about.

Kenneth Anger's sensational chronicle of the most memorable of Hollywood scandals, from D.W. Griffith to James Dean, will be published as a Delta Special on February 16 at $5.95. HOLLYWOOD BABYLON will be the same size and include the same lavish illustrations that made the $15.00 hard-cover edition a bestseller.

Here are all the most sensational and titillating scandals of Hollywood's past—as only a native son could tell them. Here is Fatty Arbuckle scuttling a career for one night of revelry; here is Wallace Reid, dying of drug addiction and possibly murder in a padded cell; Clara Bow taking on the whole UCLA "Thundering Herd"; the bi-sexual affairs of the stars; Charlie Chaplin's relations with teen-age girls; Marilyn, Judy, Ramon Navarro, George Sanders, Rudolph Valentino, and on and on as every secret is bared, every shocking act revealed, all the incredible orgies described. There is no other book like HOLLYWOOD BABYLON.

These and other shimmering tidbits about the stars are served up in a delicious mixture of wit and appreciation. Here's what the critics had to say about HOLLYWOOD BABYLON:

Kenneth Anger has fashioned a delicious 306-page box of poisoned bonbons...a truly prodigious anthology of star-studded scandals. —The New York Times Book Review

Brimming with detail and decadence, Anger leaves few headstones unturned in unearthing the real stories behind the headlines that had Photoplay breathless with shock and macabre enthrallment... HOLLYWOOD BABYLON stands as more than merely "revealing." It's a revelation. —Rex Reed

A book as legendary as its subject. —Susan Sontag

This edition is the only authorized paperback edition. First published by Mr. Anger in Paris in 1960, HOLLYWOOD BABYLON quickly became an underground sensation, and pirated copies drew high prices from American fans.

Kenneth Anger is a respected independent filmmaker whose films have included "Scorpio Rising" and "Fireworks." He grew up in the Hollywood film community and played the role of the Changeling Prince in the 1932 production of "A Midsummer's Night's Dream." He is now at work on two new films, "Lucifer Rising" and a film to be based on HOLLYWOOD BABYLON.
